FOREWORD

Here is the Chat—enjoy it, renew old friendships in the years to come, and obtain a clear picture of life in our school—the activities, classes, humor, the human side.

The Chat has been built by the never ceasing efforts of the students and the faculty. It has been work—and any type of work should be appreciated and enjoyed.

Our Alma Mater

High school days have gone before us.
 Soon, the course we've run,
But while we live, we'll love and cherish
 Friendships we've begun.

CHORUS

Alma Mater, dearest Mother,
 Mem'ries on each heart
Shall be found strong and true
 When we from you part.

Our class ties can ne'er be broken;
 They can never die;
Far surpassing words unspoken;
 Sealed by friendship's tie.

“Crosstown”

“It’s 8 O’clock”

“My Dear”,

Here I am “Looking For Yesterday,” “Day In and Day Out,” “You Forgot About Me,” but “I Give You My Word,” “You’re Gone But Not Forgotten,” “My Greatest Mistake” was “Falling In Love” with “You.” “I Wouldn’t Take A Million” for “Our Love Affair,” even though “It Is All Over Now.”

“In My Solitude,” “You Haunt Me.” I’m really “Getting Sentimental Over You.” “Last Night,” I dreamed that I was “In Heaven On A Hilltop,” “Waiting For You,” “Watching The Clock,” and then “You Walked By.” Of course, it was only my “Imagination.” “It Was Too Good To Be True.”

“I Keep Dreaming,” of “Moments In The Moonlight,” with “You.” “A Million Dreams Ago,” “You and I,” “In Dream Valley” “Whispering” “Secrets In The Moonlight.” “That’s For Me!”

“Please,” “Let There Be Love,” “Once In A Lifetime,” “Because” “I’d Love To Live In Loveland With A Boy Like You.” “I Can’t Love You Anymore Than I Do,” “Says My Heart” but “These Foolish Things” are “Gone.” “You’re The One For Me” so “I’ll Just Dream On,” “Till We Meet Again,” “Because” “It’s The Same Old Story,” “I Love You Truly.”

“All This Is Just A Dream Of You,” “My Dear,” so “I’ll Close With Love,” and being “Faithful To You,” “Only Forever.”

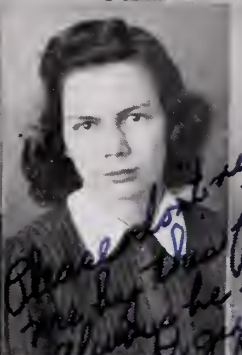

“Yours Forever,”

“Martha.”

Motto:

"FROM THE BOTTOM UP"

The Uncrossed Bridge

We have come to parting grounds.
We all have our way to choose.
Whatever our choice in life may be
We are going to win or lose.

When our lives seem dark and somber
We do trust that we have tried.
We do not have to work alone,
Since our God is still our Guide.

When men praise or criticise,
And the heart and feelings probe,
Fruit of greatness arises
As love's life-long, flowing robe.

So, press forward toward the goal.
Never think of chances lost!
Be brave, stand up, just forget
The bridge that you will never cross.

—MARY ASTOR MOTLEY.

CLASS HISTORY

When we grow old and have nothing except our memories to pass the time, the incidents which will partly monopolize our minds will be the four glorious years which we will soon complete. And rightly so, too, for from the first our class has taken an important part in practically every activity, and has written an important page (or is it a page?) in the school's history. In fact we have the distinction of being the largest senior class ever to pass through these halls, even though twenty-four students have dropped out from the original sixty-five. We are now numbered forty-three.

A notable incident in our freshman year is that, contrary to most opinions, the seniors were half the year trying to catch us for the initiations. In fact, we initiated some of the seniors. Some people say that the Germans are using our tactics under another name, the "Blitzkrieg." Besides these preliminaries, we elected class officers, student council members, had several members in "The Singer of Naples," and sent several to the music convention held in Richmond. Our main activity was that we established a place for ourselves in the school.

Our sophomore year showed many results since we sent representatives to Axton, took several roles in the "Mikado," and topped it all off with a picnic at Clearwater Lake. Besides these, many boys and girls made the athletic teams, and have been doing better each year.

As a whole, we displayed a more serious outlook toward life and toward our school, realizing that only two years separated us from the cruel world. Besides the brain work many took part in plays, many were on the Primer staff, and we were represented at the music festival at Blacksburg. Alyce Payne, Mildred Garrison, Henry Redd, Lloyd Craddock and Charles Mundy represented us at the S. C. A. meeting at Stuart, and Mildred Garrison and Paige Moore represented us in the Student Council. We climaxed that year with a backward party given for the seniors.

Now we are the all-important Seniors that are bubbling over with importance. In fact, it is running out of some of our shoes. We have selected Sam Taylor as President, and other things which make up a senior class such as the class ring. We have, under the leadership of Mr. Helms, organized a "Monogram" club, which is expected to contribute much to our Alma Mater. Helen Mundy and Elizabeth Sours have been selected valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively. Mildred Garrison was chosen the best citizen, sponsored by the D. A. R. and Elizabeth Sours was selected the outstanding pupil. This year we sent representatives to the S. C. A. meeting at Radford.

As we prepare to leave the school, which has become home to us, we only hope that our contributions will not be soon forgotten, for the memories of these past four years will be with us forever.

We have made our footprints in the sand and will continue to for the glory of C. H. S. Time marches on and so do we.

WILLIAM L. DAVIS, JR.

9. Willie Frances Davis didn't wear her riding pants on rainy days?
10. "Boots" Eanes didn't argue with Miss Jones about having a test?
11. Helen Earles didn't "buddy" with Hazel Amos?
12. James Easley skipped Mrs. Wilson's class?
13. Otha East didn't try to trip people in the hall?
14. Sam East spoke?
15. Durelle Edwards didn't buy a spring outfit?
16. Clifford Geyer wasn't so fond of the Junior girls?
17. Annie Giles had an escort home on Saturday night?
18. Haynesworth Giles didn't frown during a basketball game?
19. Lawson Hedrick didn't always look like he had just stepped out of a band-box?
20. Theo Hedrick wasn't trying to be cute?
21. Mary McLaughlin disposed of her bangs?
22. Noel Mathlery wasn't forever shooting the "bull"?
23. Mary Charles Meadows didn't like "Pickerl"?
24. Paige Moore was seen at a dance?
25. Phyllis Moore didn't talk about something "Little George" did or something "Little George" said?
26. Mary Astor Motley forgot how to read without holding the interest of her listeners?
27. Cecil Moschler wasn't admired by a certain little blond?
28. Annie Laura Mundy lost her dignity?
29. Helen Mundy grew tall?
30. Alice Payne couldn't find something to grumble about?
31. Henry Redd lost his great knowledge?
32. Dorothy Riddle came to school every day?
33. Marvin Scruggs wasn't so fond of someone that did live in South Carolina?
34. Etta Self didn't call everybody "honey"?
35. Virginia Shelhorse couldn't find someone to laugh at?
36. G. W. Shelton didn't know all the details of the European War?
37. Roxie Shorter disliked Callands?
38. Vernon Simpson forgot to deliver a message to a certain little girl from a certain little boy?
39. Elizabeth Sours lost her love for Lee?

CLASS PROPHECY

May 1, 1951

Dear Diary:

Ten short years have passed since the graduating class of 1941 has been together at Chatham High School, and as I look at my Annual, which always has a prominent place in my book shelves, it is hard to realize that such a change could have been made in these few years.

We laughed at Billy Davis because he always gave talks on Chemistry, but it did not interfere with his ambition. He is in Africa doing chemical research work. Whenever one saw Billy, Henry Redd was also to be seen. Henry is now Coach at V. P. I.

Mildred Garrison, who will always be remembered as the wit of the class, is living in an exclusive apartment in Durham, North Carolina, where her husband is "Head" of a tobacco concern.

Willie Frances Davis is also living in North Carolina. She married a millionaire and is living in a beautiful colonial mansion. It is said that her wardrobe surpasses any in the South.

Four members of the class are working for the United States. James Easley is a lieutenant in the U. S. Army. He is now stationed at Fort Bragg. Sam East is also in the Army; he is enjoying the life of a private at Fort Meade, Maryland. Vernon Simpson is a pilot for the Pan-American Air Lines. He is now rated as a captain. Marguerite Thomas is a Red Cross nurse in the Navy.

Haywood Crider has been promoted from a Saturday clerk to manager of Pender's Grocery Company. Oh boy! he has traded his green Chevrolet for a blue Packard.

We are all proud that two of our classmates have offices in the executive department of Virginia. G. W. Shelton is governor, with Durelle Edwards as his private secretary. Lloyd Craddock is speaker of the House of Representatives. His wife, Mary Astor Motley, is very proud that her husband is the youngest speaker in the history of the State.

There are several other members of the class who have positions in our home state. Paige Moore is a heart specialist at the University Hospital at Charlottesville.

Mary Charles Meadows is still trying to understand bookkeeping. Miss Carpenter is her faithful coach.

Sam Taylor is Editor-in-Chief of the Richmond Times-Dispatch. Lois Bennett is his Society Editor.

Buddy Carrington has advanced from a "soda jerker" to pharmacist at Whitehead Drug Company.

Otha East let chewing gum get the best of him. He now owns the East Chewing Gum factory at Sheva, Virginia.

Virginia Shelhorse is basketball coach at Chatham Hall, Chatham, Va.

Marvin Scruggs is one of Pittsylvania County's outstanding farmers.

We all thought that Clara Anderson would go places with her shorthand and typing, and she did. She is teaching both at Phillips Secretarial College in Lynchburg, Va.

Hazel Amos is Dean at Averett College.

Annie Giles is the wife of a preacher. He is pastor of the Concord Church.

Roxie Shorter is a supervisor of Nurses at the Hughes Memorial Hospital, Danville, Va.

Dorothy Riddle is Home Demonstration Agent of Wise County.

Helen Mundy teaches Algebra at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va.

Elizabeth Sours and her husband, Lee Paul, have attained great success in opera.

Theo Hedrick is in Brazil, where he is auctioneer in a large South American warehouse. His brother, Lawson, is practicing law in New York. He seems to get all the divorce cases.

Whose picture should be in the sport section of the paper this morning but Haynesworth Giles. He is the star catcher for the New York Yankees.

"Connie" Gregory has taken Vivian Leigh's role as Scarlet O'Hara in a revised film of "Gone With The Wind."

Helen Earles is also in Hollywood. She is a hair stylist for the famous movie actresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moschler are living in Pennsylvania, where Mr. Moschler is engaged in business. Mrs. Moschler was formerly Annie Laura Mundy.

Phyllis Moore and Etta Self are partners in an exclusive gift shop in Miami, Florida. I know they miss Mary Astor.

Bertha Dalton is a model of formal clothes for Lord and Taylor, Fifth Avenue, New York.

Another member of our class has become famous. Alice Payne has written many books on debating, which are studied throughout the country.

Everyone turns on his radio with television when Clifford Geyer is on the air with his trap drums.

"Boots" Eanes is an artist's model in Greenwich Village, New York.

I have been enjoying my work as Fashion Editor of the Vogue Magazine for many years.

Thus ends another day of reminiscing.

MARY McLAUGHLIN.

HONOR PLAQUE

Scholarship - Loyalty - Achievement

1941 - ELIZABETH SOURS

Each year a new name is placed on the Honor Plaque. This plaque was given to the High School in order that one student might be honored each year. The merits of this honor include loyalty, scholarship and achievement as judged by both students and faculty. Elizabeth Sours was voted the most outstanding Senior in Chatham during the school year of 1940-41.

On February 27th, Elizabeth was presented this medal by Mr. Helms, Principal of the school, during an assembly period. Mr. Helms expressed the feeling of the faculty and students in regard to this honor. The plaque will remain in the hall of the High School, and one student's name will be added each year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

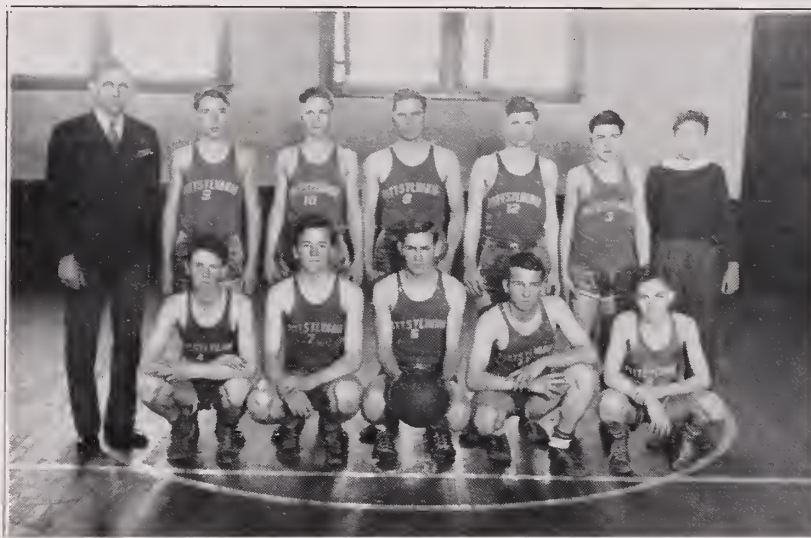

The Girls' Basketball season for '40-'41 started on September 15, 1940. Later Coach Garrison chose the first team as follows: Forwards; Virginia Shelhorse, Edna Marilla and Sarah Adams; Guards were Cynthia Johnson, Marjie Lee Anderson and Polly Moore.

We can truly say that the basketball season has been a successful one, with C. H. S. only being defeated four times out of their twenty-game schedule. Captain Virginia Shelhorse led the scoring for the entire season with 237 points, and Edna Marilla followed with 124 points.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Preparations for a 1940-41 basketball team started on the 14th of September. After weeks of practice, Coach Griffin chose the starting five as follows: Geyer and Moschler, guards; Crider and Easley forwards; and "Puss" Redd, center. The "Blue Comets" came through with an unusually successful season, by winning the District Class "C" Championship. In competing for the state Class "C" Championship, at Charlottesville, the "Comets" bowed to undefeated Broadway by a score of 31-41, in a hard fought and exciting game.

The Comets of '40-'41 leave Pete Brown, V. V. Motley and Beverly Evans, the undergraduates of this year's team, and probably our hard working manager, George Rison, to keep the flag flying high for the coming year.

BOYS' BASEBALL

Now that the basketball season is about over, the boys' thoughts at C. H. S. are turning toward the diamond. Coach Griffin, after discovering that he had eight players left from last year, came to the conclusion that a good season could be expected.

The catching duties will fall on the shoulders of Haynesworth Giles, who has had three years experience behind the plate. Working with him will be Junior McGhee, Sam Taylor and Haywood Crider, the latter being the only right-hand pitcher, and with his experience will probably show plenty of action on the mound.

The infield, all except first base, will be made up of veterans who have had from one to three years' experience. James Easley, with one year of experience, will probably play shortstop. Clifford Geyer is expected to come back to his last year's position at second base. Cecil Moschler, who has been with the team for the past three years, will have to handle the hot corner. The outfield seems to be made up of Davis, "Puss" Redd and Taylor, three letter men from last year.

It seems that first base is the only place left for the rookies except the bench. We are expecting lots of rookies out for this position, and we imagine they will make some of the veterans uneasy about their positions.
